Mascagni's latest opera, "L' Amico Fritz." will be called upon to pay a fine of $500. It was expected that Mr. Stevenson would catch the first boat for the Island yesterday atternoon, but as he wanted to see some of his friends before he left, Warden Fallon allowed him to remain in the Tombs over night.

When he was on trial there were many of Mr. Stevenson's friends in court to see him, but now that he has been convicted hearly all have deserted him.

There was no crush of these pseudo friends at the Tombs yesterday afternoon. Only one nan called to see Mr. Stevenson, and later the dive-keeper's faithful wife, who is said to be a very estimable woman, called to say good-by to her erring husband.

Tals morning Mr. Stevenson declined to see inybody. He had nerved himself for the Cassella. 124 Benefit 114 Green College of the Cassella. 124 Benefit 114 Harry Ireland. 111 Tasse 114 Harry Ireland. 111 the best of the matter. Shortly after 9 o'clock one of the vans that

HOSTILE CHURCH BRETHREN.

Factions in Ex-Pastor Millen's Fold

Gen. Horatio C. King and Charles M. Stafford, appeared before Justice Dykman at White Plains to-day as counsel for a minority of the Board of Trustees of the Washington street, Brooklyn, Methodist Episcopal Church and tegan proceedings by which they hope to prevent the dissolution of the Church and the transfer of its property.

A short time ago a majority of the church tiustees, consisting of Samuel T. Sherwood. Zebulen Pest, Hilan B. Moe, James L. Howand and John Flint, made application to the Kings County Supreme Court to have the church organization dissolved and its prop erty transferred to the Brooklyn Church So clety of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The petition was ordered to be filed with Justice Dykman, and counsel for the opposition was granted full power to examine all books and papers in the case.

There are several affidavits in the posses-There are several affidavits in the possession of Messrs. King and Stafford which throw peculiar light upon the affairs of the church and those who directed them.

Notable among these is an affidavit by Frank E. Farshley, a prominent member of the church, who is decidedly opposed to its dissolution. Among other things he says that the affairs of the church were in a healthy condition until the appointment as pastor of key. C. W. Millen, described by the slidavit as "an ungodiy and ilcentious minister," who was afterwards removed for misconduct and immorality.

The affidavit also says that at the meeting at which the church property was voted away for bridge terminus purposes there were only thirty-eight persons present, thirty of whom were women, and that they were is whom were women, and that they were to trepresentatives of the church interests. He further charges that church property was mortgaged for $35,000 at 6 per cent. Interest to pay off a $19,000 mortgage, which was only drawing 41g per cent. Interest, and which was not due at the time. Mr. Parshley lectures this to be gross mismanagement. He puts in a bill for $6,850 for "disbursements and services rendered," which dited by the trustees but never paid.

Staats Zeltung" Building to Be Taken Under the Law of Eminent Domain.

The Municipal Building Commission to-day. by a vote of 5 to 1, decided to select as a site for the new municipal building, or city hall, to be erected, the land bounded by Park Row, Duane and Centre streets and Tryon row, including the building of the Staats Zeitung. This site has a total area of 88,600 square et, and the building, which will surround an ample courtyard, will have an area of 42,400

quare feet on each floor. The estimated cost of the property to be aken is $2,302,900, including $245,000 worth of the city's property.

The selection of this site will necessitate the closing of Reade street and City Hall place. Chambers street is to be arched over. Comptroller Myers and County Clerk Mc-Kenna were the only absentees at to-day's meeting of the Commission.

Deputy Comptroller Storrs asked for an adjournment until Tuesday, at the request of the Comptroller, but this was refused. Police Commissioner MacLean, who appeared as counsel for Oswald Ottendorfer, Zeitung, declared that he had not been allowed sufficient time to prepare his argu-
